COUNTRY Sweden/Western Europe DATE DISTR. 10 April 1951 SUBJECT Meeting of European neo-Fascist Parties NO. OF PAGES to be Held in Sweden 25X1A NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X An Inter-European meeting of neo-Fascist parties will be held at Ostra Forstadsgatan 15, Malmo, Sweden, between 7 and 10 April 1951. The meeting is to be held in the offices of Vagen Framet, the organ of the Swedish neo-Fascist party, Nysvenska Rorelsen (The New Swedish Movement), The conference was organized by Per Engdahl, chairman of Nysvenska Rorelsen. It is the second such meeting of European neo-Fascist parties, the first having been held in Italy in the fall of 1950.* 2. It is expected that representatives will be present from the Italian MS! (II Movimento Sociale Italiano), the Danish Foreningen 6 Mai, and three German Fascist groups. In addition Swiss, Dutch, Belgian, French and British delegates are to attend the Malmo meeting. The British delegation is to consist of Sir Oswald Mosley and another Englishman. Engdahl hopes that the delegates will decide to form a "European Council for Nationalist Parties" as a standing body to advance parties of this type. Engdahl Sent a report on the planned meeting to Swedish Prime Minister Tage Erlander, asking that the Swedish authorities expedite visa arrangements for all delegates. He learned that the Swedish authorities will not take any action to hinder attendance of foreign representatives at the meeting. 25X1A The meeting held in Italy was described in Document No. ____ No Change in Class.
